

Taste Testing for Food and Drinks

April 2021

Under COVIDSafe Settings in Victoria, Retail Stores can offer taste-testing of food and drinks, however there are steps retail stores must take to ensure they remain COVIDSafe.

The checklist can be used by retail stores to determine if adequate risk controls are in place.

Taste Testing for Food and Drinks COVIDSafe Compliance Checklist

Do you ensure:

- workers and customers wear face masks in line with current requirements unless they have a lawful reason not to. Face masks can be removed when eating or drinking.

☐

- everyone adheres to density quotients of two people per one square metre

☐

- cleaning and disinfecting all surfaces after each group of patrons and immediately after a spill.

☐

- regular cleaning and disinfecting high-touch surfaces, including implements used for food display or serving

Do you, in accordance with the Victorian Governments' recommendations:

- encourage good hand hygiene where fresh or sample produce is available, and ensure hand sanitiser is available for patrons upon entry and exit, as well as during sampling activities

- do not allow sharing of food and provide individual samples
